

Prime Minister of Japan

Secretary General of the United Nations

Piano that survived the bombing

Choir singing accompanied by piano

Wreaths laid in memory of victims

Mayor Matsui of Hiroshima City urged the Japanese government to join the Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons and join forces in each country to "solidarity" toward the abolition of nuclear weapons in a declaration of peace for the 75th year of the atomic bombing.