Atomic Cabaret Comes to Yorkshire

The science and madness of The Bomb from Trinity to Trident, starring Lynda Williams, a.k.a. the Physics Chanteuse

Atomic Cabaret is a one-woman science-political musical about the physics, history, and existential threat of nuclear weapons from Trinity to Trident. Blending science, satire, original songs, and storytelling with projected scientific and archival visuals the show creates a unique, immersive cabaret experience. Atomic Cabaret commemorates the 80th anniversary of the U.S. bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki and is a benefit for the UK Campaign for Nuclear Disarmament (CND) and their work toward peace and disarmament. Atomic Cabaret marks Lynda's first tour of the UK and is part of a multi-city tour across England, Scotland, North Ireland and Belgium.

About the Artist

Lynda Williams is a physicist, activist, and performance artist based in Hawaii. As The Physics Chanteuse she has written and performed original science cabarets for scientists at CERN, NASA, the American Physical Society, KipFest at Caltech, Stephen Hawking's birthday bash, and for the public at the US Science Festival, the Swedish Science Festival, and many others. Her work has been featured in the New York Times, LA Times, Scientific American, People Magazine, and on NPR. Lynda is also a published writer on nuclear and environmental issues.
